News Update for January 21, 2021

In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. He was in the beginning with God. All things came into being through him, and without him not one thing came into being. What has come into being in him was life, and the life was the light of all people. The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness did not overcome it.

John 1:1-5 NRSV

Dear Siblings in Christ,

The season of Epiphany is about Jesus the Christ being revealed in the world. We begin Epiphany with the wise persons visiting Jesus and his parents to pay homage as they would to a new king, and then move through a variety of scenarios in which Jesus is revealed as the Messiah. The Bible speaks of the star that led to Jesus being a bright light in the sky. The ah-ha moments that ordinary people had when they experienced a call to ministry from Jesus, and those folks who recognized that it was the Son of God who had healed them or cast out their demons, often had what we describe in modern terms as “the lightbulb came on.” Throughout Epiphany and throughout the Bible, light is used to refer to the new ways that God is being revealed in the world.

Yesterday a new thing was revealed, and across our nation little girls were realizing that they could grow up to be the vice president of the United States (or even president). One of the highlights of the Biden-Harris inauguration was the young poet-laureate, Amanda Gorman, reading her poem “The Hill We Climb.” It ended in this way:

The new dawn blooms as we free it.
For there is always light if only we’re brave enough to see it,
If only we’re brave enough to be it.

I look forward to hearing about ways that the light of Christ is shining in your life and about your “lights coming on” moments.

Remember, beloved of God, that you are loved and appreciated. Trinity remains the Body of Christ even when we are separated in order to stay safe.

Blessings,
Reverend Ruth

Bed, Chair and Dresser for Albert Haviland by Nancy Stewart

Dear Friends in Christ,

I received a call from Albert today and he is moving into Tambree Meadows Assisted Living on Monday 1/25/21. (He currently lives in Rexburg at Temple View Transitional Center.)

He needs a bed. I called Becca, the Administrator, and she told me that Albert is moving into an unfurnished studio apartment. His Avalon apartment came furnished and he does not have the bare requirements: bed, dresser, and comfortable chair.

Please call Nancy at 208-521-7247 if you are able to donate any of these items. Robin and I will pick them up and deliver them to Room 5 of Tambree Meadows Assisted Living, 3620 Potomac Way (208) 528-0467.

Gather at the Table for February!

Join us to reconnect during this time of COVID isolation. It would be wonderful see you on screen, and socialize with you, as we continue our faith journey. A brief deep-thought question and time for prayers will be available. Looking forward to seeing and visiting with everyone Wednesday, February 3rd at 6:30.

New guests, please call the office if you would like an invitation to this zoom.

Do you have plans for your stimulus check? - Ruth Marsh

The second round of stimulus money from the federal government is beginning to arrive. I would ask you to prayerfully consider if you can afford to give this "found money" to the church. Clearly your loved ones are a first level priority but supporting Trinity's ministries and building is a way for you and your money to make a difference in this community.

Vaccinations for 65 or older to start early February. – Don Rohde

Idahoans 65 years and older can expect vaccinations to start early February (final date to be determined). Since there are about 250,000 Idahoans in this group, a tiered approach may be needed depending on supply.

Eastern Idaho Public Health (EIPH) will announce a schedule for vaccinating this group prior to Feb. 1st.

Individuals in this group may contact their local public health district, local pharmacy, or primary care clinician to learn more or schedule an appointment. Use the EIPH Vaccine Hotline: (208) 533-3235 or go to <https://eiph.idaho.gov/>

There will be a group #3 in March for people 16 to 64 with underlying medical conditions listed below. Contact your primary care clinician to learn more or schedule an appointment.

- Cancer
- Chronic kidney disease
- COPD (chronic obstructive pulmonary disease)
- Down Syndrome
- Heart conditions, such as heart failure, coronary artery disease, or cardiomyopathies
- Immunocompromised state (weakened immune system) from solid organ transplant

- Severe Obesity (BMI ≥ 40 kg/m<sup>2</sup>)
- Pregnancy

Online signup is accomplished through the EIPC website and requires an email address to receive the confirmation. When it is your group's turn and if you need help in signing up or need help with transportation, please contact the Pam at the church office at 208-522-7921 and she will help make arrangements.

We will publish updates in the newsletter as they happen.

CAUTION: Remember there are 2 shots required, spaced a month apart. You will start to have some immunity seven days after your first dose. Your immunity will continue to build and will reach a peak about two weeks after the second dose (total of 6 weeks). Don't be lured into a false sense of safety. Wear your masks, wash your hands and keep your physical distance.

United Methodist Women - Mary Nagel

To continue our month-long recognition of the United Methodist Women, the following are highlights of some of our previous events and celebrations at Trinity. In 1940 following the uniting of the Methodist Episcopal, the Methodist Protestant, the Methodist Church South, the Missionary Societies and the Ladies' Aid combined to become the Women's Society of Christian Service (WSCS). Its emblem was a triangle with "Women's Society of Christian Service" printed on it, surrounded by a circle of laurel leaves. Inside the triangle were a cross and two globes (representing the whole world). Some of our women, with helping hands of their husbands, made a large lighted emblem for the parlor. It was enjoyed for many years until replaced by the new cross and flame emblem.

In 1943, 432 plates with pictures of the church on them were bought to sell as a money-making project. UMW cookbooks were also sold. No wonder Methodist women are such goods cooks with recipes like that. New cookbook sales continued with the last being published in 2006. Another way money was made for the unit was by taking orders and making fresh donuts. This went over very well. In 1958 the coral banded dishes were purchased and used for large gatherings.

Ways of meeting our Pledge to Missions have been rummage and garage sales. It all started years ago when rummage sales were held downtown in any vacant building to be found. It was a big job moving tables, etc., so later sales were held in the church basement. Unfortunately, the rummage sales ceased several years ago due to lack of able-bodied helpers. Bake sales were another (and still are) a great money maker. Church dinners and craft booths were held, along with fashion and talent shows. All of which were accompanied by food made by the UMW. These projects have helped to continue each year fulfilling our Pledge to Missions.

Dismantling Racism - Kristina Gonzalez (Greater Northwest Area UMC)

Bishop Elaine Stanovsky, in Part 2 of her 2020 Episcopal address, has called on all local congregations to “Examine the visual images present in worship spaces and facilities, newsletters, for imagery that is culturally biased or exclusionary.” The following was provided by Kristina Gonzalez.

Jesus was a man of Middle Eastern descent. He was surely dark-skinned. His ministry was among the Jews, also dark-skinned. But like contemporary societies, the Jews were stratified by education and class, among other differences. As a person raised in Nazareth, Jesus was looked upon as inferior by those raised in the power seats of the Jewish culture. He came from the margins, and as he worked among the people, the margins to which he reached expanded. Recall his interaction with the Syrophenician woman in Mark 7:24-30.

Jesus drew his disciples from common people. When they - tasting a bit of fame and power themselves - sought to limit Jesus’ reach, he said to them, “If any of you put a stumbling block before one of these little ones who believe in me, it would be better for you if a great millstone were fastened around your neck and you were drowned in the depth of the sea.” Matt 18:6 NRSV. Jesus confronted the power to exclude even among his disciples, calling them to an understanding of the depth of humility required to be a Jesus follower.

As followers of Jesus Christ, we are called in our time to confront power and privilege that have the potential to “...put a stumbling block...” before those who may seek to encounter Christ through our United Methodist faith communities in the Greater Northwest Area. This guide will support you in the work of analyzing imagery and communications for the ways they elevate or center whiteness or communicate exclusion.

As you do this work, remember the difference between intent and impact. Though our intent may be positive or hopeful, our impacts may be negative and diminishing. As United Methodist Christians we are called to radical hospitality, which will include decentering the images and communication methods that normalize whiteness. Each step has the potential to open our eyes to notice the subtle messages embedded in our traditions, and to ask why.

Children's' Artwork

This Christmas several of the children of Trinity created artwork for us to use in the services and newsletters.

This interpretation of the manger scene was provided by Eliana Castillo.

John Wesley Quote

“Pray, just as you are lead, without reasoning, in all simplicity. Be a little child, hanging on him that loves you.”

Work Around the Church

Rob is working on putting the texturing on the ceiling repairs in the south west corner of the sanctuary. The next step will be painting. There are several more ceiling repairs in the sanctuary that will keep Rob busy all winter.

A Lesson from The Christian Scriptures - (Mark 1:14-20)

Now after John was arrested, Jesus came to Galilee, proclaiming the good news of God, and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near; repent, and believe in the good news."

As Jesus passed along the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon and his brother Andrew casting a net into the sea – for they were fishermen. And Jesus said to them, "Follow me and I will make you fish for people." And immediately they left their nets and followed him. As he went a little farther, he saw James son of Zebedee and his brother John, who were in their boat mending the nets. Immediately he called them; and they left their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired men, and followed him.

Some of the guidelines for groups include:

1. Up to 10 persons may meet in the sanctuary at the same time.

3. You will need to sign the contact tracing log when you arrive.
4. Masks must be worn inside the church.
