

News Update for August 25, 2020

Today's scripture may give us more insight into the humanness of Jesus than any other. We get a glimpse of the Son of God speaking harsh words to someone, and then seemingly realizing that what he had said was hurtful. Who among us has not wished that we could take back words that had harmed our loved ones?

My, do we ever get to see the human side of Jesus today. So, the first half of the lesson has Jesus telling us, using his words, how bad words can be. He says it's not just our actions but very words, which can be as yucky as any unclean food could possibly be. Then, surprisingly enough, after being pressed by his disciples a little bit, Jesus tells a story that's almost incomprehensible. To modern ears the words are practically gibberish. Then we come to the place in scripture where the Canaanite woman enters into the story. Finally, something we can read and understand. So, the Canaanites were always counted as an outsider. Yes, sometimes it easier to say harsh words to an outsider. Perhaps it can be easier because you don't have to worry about a long-term relationship with that person. That seems to be just what Jesus had done. Maybe he was having a bad day when the woman came screaming "Lord, Lord my daughter has a demon, please heal her." Jesus then snapped back saying how his job was only to care for the children of Israel. If we read this in the original language, we read how it's not right to throw the good food for the children of Israel to the dogs. He tells her, or at least insinuates, that she is a dog, a female dog- and dogs were not normally part of a household as they are now. They were expendable, outside animals to take care of rodents or herd sheep, cows, and goats. They were considered to be dirty and filled with diseases. Yet she manages to come back with "But lord, even the little puppies get to enjoy the food that spills from the master's table."

Now as I mentioned before, who among us has not wished we could take back words?

I've had harsh words with loved ones this week and would have liked to be able to take them back. But like toothpaste out of the tube, we cannot take them back. If we are fortunate, we get to apologize and have perhaps have our apology accepted, or not.

That is the moment we realize that what we say in the world makes a difference. It makes a difference in our own heart, as it should. What we say and the words we use make a difference. We can't fix everything, all we can do is understand that we have the power of love and the power of words and the power to realize that we may have been wrong, which I think may be the power of this particular scripture: when even the son of God realizes that he could have been wrong about what he said, and he reminds the Canaanite woman that her faith he great. Friends let your faith be great this week. Let God enter your words, let them be soft and kind. Let them be wise. Let the words you speak out to others be helpful. Let the self-talk you speak, be useful. Let us do all this in the name of the living God, who loves each of you. Amen.

I miss you and love you.

Blessings,
Rev. Ruth

Remember to hold each other tightly in your heart.

Sunday's Worship

Sunday's worship theme was "Making Things Right After We Say Hurtful Words." Who among us has not wished we could take back words that have harmed our loved ones? The scripture lesson was Matthew 15:10-28, if you would like to reference it before you watch the video. The video was available on our Facebook page on Sunday morning and on our YouTube channel on Monday. (See the last page for all the links.)

Progressive Dinner, not for 2020

Every year for the past 28, a progressive dinner has been held at the downtown churches. Lately, the money raised has gone to the Soup Kitchen.

Since the Progressive Dinner will not be held this year, we have been trying out various different scenarios for raising about $375, which is the average raised from the past 4 years. None of our ideas seem to have caught anyone's imagination, so we are just asking for the money to be donated.

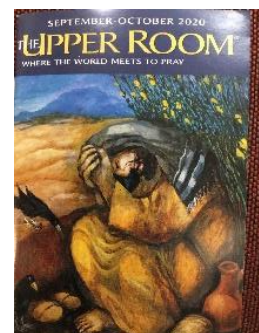

If the Progressive Dinner is something you have always done, you could donate the cost of a ticket, and on the evening of September 18th, eat salad (Trinity's course this year), and call some friends

Soup Kitchen appreciates you!

The Upper Room is Here

The latest issue of The Upper Room is now available at the office. You may stop by the church and pick one up, or if you would like to have one delivered, please call 208-522-9721 to talk with Pam or leave a message.
