Trinity United Methodist Church

Pastor's Perspective

Dear sisters and brothers in Christ,
Last month I wrote about what the United Methodist Book of Discipline has to say about various leadership positions in the local church. This month, I'd like to share what 1st Timothy, chapter 3, has to say about serving in the church. Whichever definition you choose to embrace, Trinity has room for you to follow where the Holy Spirit is leading you to serve! I look forward to seeing you at Charge Conference.

If anyone wants to provide leadership in the church, good! But there are preconditions: A leader must be well-thought-of, committed to their spouse, cool and collected, accessible, and hospitable. They must know what they're talking about, not be overfond of wine, not pushy but gentle, not thin-skinned, not money-hungry. They must handle their own affairs well, attentive to their own children and having their respect. For if someone is unable to handle their own affairs, how can they take care of God's church? They must not be a new believer, lest the position go to their head and the Devil trip them up. Outsiders must think well of them, or else the Devil will figure out a way to lure them into his trap.

(1st Timothy 3:1-8 The Message)

On Tuesday, November 15th at 7:30pm the Trinity United Methodist Church will hold its "Charge Conference" in the Parlor.

So Just What Are We Charging?

No, it's not a shopping spree!

Why is it called a Charge Conference?

John Wesley, the founder of Methodism, instructed each local church to have annual meeting called a "Charge Conference" where the business of the parish would be conducted. A "Charge" is where a pastor serves. It can be comprised of one church or multiple churches. For instance, Davey Lefler serves 4 small churches, including Shelley UMC, and they are still just one Charge.

What kind of business takes place?

Many financial matters get taken care of. The pastor's salary and all expenses related to the pastor for the upcoming year are voted upon and the Trustees turn in a full report of the all money and property entrusted to them, which includes the church buildings, the parsonage, and the endowment fund.

Additionally, the Lay Leadership Committee brings a new slate of local church leadership for the upcoming year to be voted on by those present at Charge Conference. Nominations can also be taken from the floor to fill leadership positions. Which brings me to the next question:

Who can come to Charge Conference?

You can! While a Charge Conference technically only requires those in leadership of the church to be there, in recent decades many churches have begun having "All Church Conferences" where the entire congregation is invited. You don't have to be member to attend.

Who leads the meeting?

Originally, John Wesley led these meetings himself. Now they are often led by the District Superintendent. Our Sage District Superintendent, Rev Gwen Drake, will not preside over the our Conference. Trinity will have a chance to meet Gwen on January 8th when she comes for our Mission and Ministry Meeting (more about that in next month's newsletter). The United Methodist Book of Discipline requires that all Charge Conferences be led by an ordained elder. That means that we get to have an opportunity to meet Rev. Desi Larson who is the new pastor up at Ashton UMC.

Will there be food?

Probably not. Unless you decide that there ought to be and get some friends together to make it happen.

Blessings,

Reverend Ruth

New Scholarship formed at Trinity UMC!

With great pleasure, the Endowment Committee, announces the formation of the Pete Isaksen Memorial Scholarship! Pete was the son of our very own Shirley Cowell. He was seldom in attendance, but well aware of the wonderful work that Trinity was doing in the community and the warm welcome we continue to provide for his family.

The terms of the scholarship, which will be overseen by Trinity's Endowment Committee are:

1. The recipient is an active participant of Trinity UMC.
2. The recipient is pursuing studies (undergraduate or graduate) in the Science, Technology, Engineering, or Mathematics disciplines.
3. The annual amount of scholarship should be $10,000, and up to $40,000 for a single recipient.

Applications will be taken in the spring of 2017 starting for fall semester

Election Eve Prayer and Communion

This election season has been stressful and down right vitriolic much of the time. There have been deep divisions across party lines that may have even effected relationships you have with family and friends. Yet, on the day after the election, we will still be the worshipping body of Trinity United Methodist Church. We will still be the beloved children of God called to love each other and the whole of creation.

whole of creation.

To this end, the evening before the election, Monday, November 7th at 6pm, Trinity will host a 30 minute prayer and Communion worship in the sanctuary. Nothing fancy - just an opportunity to hold our country and the outcome of the election in prayer as we begin the process of healing after these last few months of bitter political conflict.

Trinity in Local Mission

Almost $70 was raised from the "sale" of produce during the summer. This money was sent to UMCOR for the Cleaning Bucket project. Many cleaning buckets were filled by churches throughout Idaho and Oregon. Because of all of the flooding in so many parts of the United States, the buckets are being used as soon as they arrive.

During December, there will be a tree for mittens, hats, gloves, scarves, underwear and socks to be distributed locally to folks in need. Watch the sales now and be ready to join in this project to keep hands and heads warm and protected.

There is still a need for diapers, wipes and pullups...watch for sales, purchase and place in the basket in the parlor.

United Methodist Women

By: Marilyn Taylor

Highlights of the October unit meeting of the United Methodist women included discussion about blessedness in our lives and how God impacts all of our lives, every day, in many ways.

Plans for the Holiday Treat Sale on December 4 are under way and everyone was encouraged to bake and/or make some food item to sell. This will include soups, casseroles and sweet items.

The November unit meeting will feature a speaker from the program that assists with the foster children in the area.

Cordy Koelsch and Marilyn Taylor attended the Oregon-Idaho United Methodist Women's Annual meeting at Hillview United Methodist Church in Boise. The theme of the UMW Annual meeting is "Change Always Comes Bearing New Gifts" and the guest speaker was Marissa Villarreal from the Women's National Office of United Methodist Women.

After Church Potluck Lunch

Please join us for the 4th Sunday potluck lunch after worship on the 27th. Let's see those leftovers from Thanksgiving!

The Miracle on 34th Street

The Miracle on 34th Street will be presented radio-style at four performances here at Trinity December 8th through 10th. (See the calendar.) We look forward to this production by a new group of actors.

Church Information Forms

Thank you for filling out the church information forms! I believe that most of the church-going regulars have updated data. If you have not, or are unsure whether you'd signed up for email or snailmail newsletter, or whether you gave permission to publish phone numbers or addresses, please feel free to use another form to modify the information.

Wesley Bell Choir

There will be "Ring in the Season" concerts on Saturday, December 3 at 3:30 and Sunday, December 4 at 4:30 and 7:00.

Reverend Gwen Drake

Effective July 1st, Rev. Gwen Drake was appointed District Superintendent of the Sage District in the Oregon-Idaho Conference.

A lifelong Methodist, Gwen felt the call to ordained ministry 28 years ago. She attended seminary at the Pacific School of Religion and graduated with a Master's of Divinity degree. Gwen has served several churches. Her 2 daughters, 2 grandchildren, and dog, Kita, accompany her on her life journey.

It will be exciting to meet with her when she visits us in the new year.

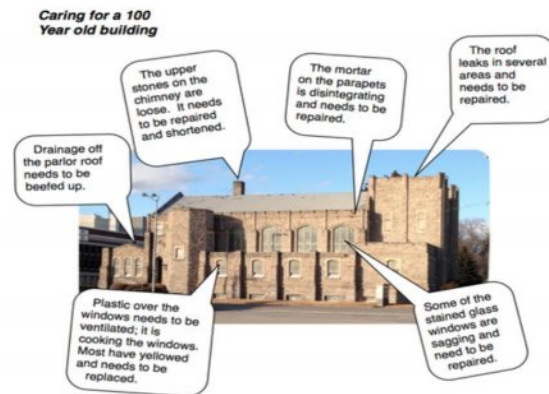

Building Preservation - Board of Trustees

Trustees are anxiously waiting news about the grant determination from the National Fund for Sacred Places. We should hear by early November if we are being asked to move forward with the grant process. We will let you know during church and in the next newsletter.

We are working to get the church ready for winter. Rob Denkins is to be congratulated on saving us lots of money by using a stethoscope to figure out which boiler/radiator valves and radiator traps needed replacement. His analysis and Rocky Mountain Boiler workers have dealt with last year's oversteam issue with a minimal cost!

We have lots of inside projects that we'd love to share with members, Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts. They include making the slats narrow in the Senior High Sunday School loft; painting unused rooms, boiler room, Parlor, etc. Please contact Nancy Stewart to discuss. Yours in Christ, Trinity Trustees.

This activity is performed on a daily basis (typically in the morning), takes between 2 and 3 hours to complete, and can require lifting boxes weighing up to 30 pounds. Personal vehicles (which need to be a pickup truck, SUV or van) can be used, or the Community Basket truck is also available. We need individuals who can either make a weekly commitment or serve in a back-up capacity. If interested, please call Rose Huntley at 208-709-3868.

Finance Notes:

Please find in these pages the finance report for January 1, 2016 through September 30, 2016. Pages 1-3 are the profit and loss statement, so the figures represent money in the general fund, while pages 3-4 are the balance sheet which represents money that is dedicated to a particular purpose. Here is some additional information for a few lines that might be of particular interest:

Under building and property - church maintenance & repair, the figure $4,379 may seem pretty low, that is because the Trustees were able to access a small amount from the endowment fund designated for the building and some non-designated memorial funds to do some long term capital repairs equaling $6,234. The true cost of caring for the building has been $10,612 to date.

The finance committee is busy putting together information that they hope will be useful as you figure out your financial commitment to the work of Trinity United Methodist Church. There will be pledge forms available for you to keep or turn into the office (whichever is more helpful as a reminder of your weekly, monthly, or annual goal.)

Thank you again for your generosity of time and financial resources.

Scouting News

Girl Scout Troop 60 /62

Girl Scouts are traveling to Green Canyon for the annual swim / campout. They are planning on the Festival of Trees, and working on cooking badges.

Boy Scout Troop 6

Boy Scout activities in October included the Archer Straw Maze, and planning for the Haunting of the Elks - an annual spook alley for younger scouts / families.

The troop is starting to plan for the January "Winteree" - a frozen district Klondike derby.

Venture Crew 6

We are still building our Hudson Bay Blanket Capotes. These are the authentic winter garment of primitive mountain men and explorers. They will all be finished in early December.

The crew enjoyed a trip to straw/corn maze.

We have purchased a new thatcher for use during the spring fund raisers.

Welcoming Statement

At the recent "Called to Love" workshop we learned lots of ways to enhance how our congregation welcomes neighbors into our warm embrace. If you are interested in participating on a task force that will put together a welcoming statement and think intentionally about how we show hospitality, please contact Tia Durrant at tdurrant@gmail.com

Cub Scout Pack 6

Pack and Troop 6 joined Pack and Troop 310 at the Scouting for Food collection site held at Christ the King Catholic Church. This was 1 of 3 collection sites in Idaho Falls. Our site collected 8 pallets of food for the local area.

Pack 6 also has completed their annual Popcorn sales. The Pack increased their sales over 23% from last year, and even had 1 cub qualify for the scholarship program. Thanks for all of the help we received for this to allow our scouts to have an Ideal Year of Scouting. This allowed us to bring the Cubs to Leo's place after the Scouting for Food for Pizza and playing in the Game room.

November's Pack meeting will feature our annual Cake Auction. Our Scouts and parents make baked goods we auction off, with the proceeds going to Trinity's Pastoral Emergency Fund.

Members of the congregation are invited to join us on November 15th at 6:30 PM to have the opportunity to bid on some of these creative items.
